

Iron Hill Museum Presents

Science Adventure Camps

New for 2010!!

Our Camps are Redesigned!

- New Crafts ●New Activities
- New Field Trips

Jr. Archaeologist June 21-25 Ages 10-13

Learn about people from the past using clues they left behind. A great way to combine a love of history and science for any camper!

Jr. Naturalist July 5-9 Ages 7-11

For campers that love being in nature and learning about the world all around them. Explore nature on hiking trips and do crafts and activities focusing on nature.

Jr. Geologist July 19-23 Ages 7-11

A week of rock collecting for campers! Study earth materials and processes, collect your own specimens and start your own collection.

Jr. Paleontologist August 2-6 Ages 7-11

Learn about prehistoric Delaware and the fossil records. Learn about dinosaurs and what they left behind for us to find! See real life dinosaur skeletons on our field trip.

Jr. Entomologist August 16-20 Ages 9-13

Explore the insect world, learn to identify the insects in Delaware, assemble your own collection, and camp out one night in search of nocturnal insects!
